DELTAPHONIC

DELTAPHONIC BIO

Jaap and Diederik met at the Great Yonder Festival in Hungary, where they both performed as musicians. That's where their musical journey began.

Jaap, as an experienced producer and musician from the infamous live electronic band Dialoque.

Diederik, as an experienced performer with The Analogues.

Having collaborated in various musical formations, they decided that the time had come to shed their last inhibitions and surrender to what they both love most: making music until it transcends into pure ecstasy.

Deltaphonic performs live, and no two sets are the same.
